

Home Learning – Art Attack!

Your class is named after the artist: Georgia O’Keeffe

Your task is to: create a city scape inspired by her images of New York. You can use paint, pencil crayon or even create a collage. Look at how simple the shapes are and how the buildings appear to be “looming” over the viewer.
