

Robert Mellors Primary Academy - Year 5 Creative Writing Home Task

These story starters were sent to us by Daniel Henshaw, author of “The curious case of the missing orangutan” and “The great snail robbery”.

Choose a different Story Starter each day. Let your story take you anywhere you like.

DAILY STORY STARTER Nº1

I approached the door, expecting it to be like the doors on my own planet... but it wasn't.

THIS IS THE FIRST SENTENCE OF YOUR NEW STORY.
THE STORY CAN BE ABOUT WHATEVER YOU LIKE.
BUT IT HAS TO BEGIN WITH THIS SENTENCE.
YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO WORRY ABOUT SPELLING OR GRAMMAR.
JUST WRITE! GOOD LUCK!

DAILY STORY STARTER Nº2

There were lots of people on the train and that was not good.

THIS IS THE FIRST SENTENCE OF YOUR NEW STORY.
THE STORY CAN BE ABOUT WHATEVER YOU LIKE.
BUT IT HAS TO BEGIN WITH THIS SENTENCE.
YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO WORRY ABOUT SPELLING OR GRAMMAR.
JUST WRITE! GOOD LUCK!

DAILY STORY STARTER Nº3

Mum dashed into the living room, wearing a flour-covered apron and looking frantic.

THIS IS THE FIRST SENTENCE OF YOUR NEW STORY.
THE STORY CAN BE ABOUT WHATEVER YOU LIKE.
BUT IT HAS TO BEGIN WITH THIS SENTENCE.
YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO WORRY ABOUT SPELLING OR GRAMMAR.
JUST WRITE! GOOD LUCK! #DailyStoryStarter

gnarled    eccentric    serpent    casual observer    alarmingly distress    sleek    turban    mangled    valuable    slithers    exotic particular    caverns    brilliance    hunched    atmosphere forbidding    smothered    temptation    stubbornness    habitable accordingly    vast    liberally    speckled    invitingly    unflinchingly abundance    ambitions    blessings    blistering    climate

You can also visit Pobble365 through the link on our website. This gives you a different picture each day to inspire your creative writing. We look forward to reading the adventures that you have created.

