Monday	Read your book for 30 minutes.	BBC Bitesize Analysing myths and legends	Transition activities.  In school we have been thinking about Year 7. Having a go at these activities will help prepare you for life in secondary school.  Read the More Transition tasks information to get you started.	BBC Bitesize Problem solving	Safety in the science lab sessions.  In school we will be looking at how to ensure we are safe in the science labs at secondary school.  Redhill ask us to do these sessions with the children before they leave.  Encourage your child to learn the 7 Hazard symbols – maybe they could draw them.  Encourage your child to tell you all the safety issues in the cartoon. They could then write them down and think of rules for the lab that would help prevent those issues.	Transition to Y7  From now until the end of term, I will be providing you with a Year 6 transition learning project supplied by the Robin Hood Multi Academy Trust, as well as some activities and games you could be doing with your children to prepare them for life in secondary school.  This week the theme is all about children valuing their achievements and setting goals for the future.		Have a look at the various options on the new Anytime Creative Bingo sheet.  These are just ideas from school. You may have much better ones!  Remember, any inspired work that you are really proud of, email it to me and we can show it off on the school website.  Or  Try this exciting Design and Technology lesson from BBC Bitesize:  Iterative Design
