Dear parents/carers,

Important safety information

I was made aware by a police officer over the weekend that there has been some suspicious activity spotted by a male near to school at the end of the day on Friday.

The teachers will be talking to the children to revisit 'stranger-danger' learning with them, reminding them how to keep themselves safe while they are out and about.

The police are aiming to have some patrols around school this week as a supportive measure relating to this concern that has been raised.

Please be vigilant and continue to report anything unusual to the police.

Best regards

Mrs Essex
