

|                                |  |   |   |
|--------------------------------|--|---|---|
| Books                          |   |  |  |
|                                | It's Ok to be DifferentTodd Parr  | ElmerDavid McKee   | I am BrownAshok Banker andSandhya Prabhat                            |
| Session objective and activity |  |   |   |
| Week 1                         | I can talk about identify what makes me an individualRead 'It's OK to be different'Discuss the ways that you are different to your friend.Draw yourself.  |   |   |
| Week 2                         | I can show my preferencesChildren to say something that is 'Ok' – linked to learning from previous session e.g. 'It's Ok to like brussels sprouts' or 'It's Ok to have a brown spot on my face'.Play 'Run around' game – run to the picture that you prefer – children think of the things that they like and how they might be different to others. |   |   |
| Week 3                         | I can think about the perspectives of othersLook at the book 'Elmer' – discuss the cover and readAsk what the children think Elmer might be thinking/wondering at different points in the story.Discuss how the elephants show that they love Elmer even though he is different.  |   |   |
| Week 4                         | I feel good about the ways we are the same and differentRecap the story of 'Elmer' and the key messages.Talk about what is the same and what is different between you and a friend OR colour an elephant for an elephant parade. Make sure your elephant is different to the others.   |   |   |
| Week 5                         | I can talk about the ways we are the same and differentRead the book 'I am Brown' and discuss the key messages and answer linked questions.Children to think of their own versions of 'I am...' linked to the book.  |   |   |
| Week 6                         | I can talk about my skin colourWatch video – We all have different shades of skin. Look at and discuss different skin colours and why we should be proud of our skin colour because it is part of who we are.Paint a hand print the same colour as your skin.  |   |   |